

SPORT & YOUTH CRIME CONFERENCE

High Risk Cohort – Using sport and activity to navigate away from criminality and exploitation

High Risk Cohort – Using sport and activity to navigate away from criminality and exploitation

Aims:

- Outline the work of the PPP, Re-Route and Probation joint working team
- Describe the cohort and the challenges they face
- Examine how sport and activity can provide ‘additional value’

Outcomes

Attendees will:

- Understand the genesis of the Police Prevent, Protect and Prepare team, the safeguarding officers and why the team was formed
- Have an awareness of the cohort the team was intended to work with
- Become familiar with the work of the Re-Route (YOS) team and Probation involvement
- Understand the work the S&A Navigator undertakes as an embedded member of that multi agency team
- Be challenged to think about the use of sport and activity as an engagement tool within their work

COUNTY LINES

County Lines

County Lines is where illegal drugs are transported from one area to another, often across police and local authority boundaries (although not exclusively), usually by children or vulnerable people who are coerced into it by gangs. The 'County Line' is the mobile phone line used to take the orders of drugs. Importing areas (areas where the drugs are taken to) are reporting increased levels of violence and weapons-related crimes as a result of this trend.

NPCC definition of a County Line

The 2018 Home Office Serious Crime Strategy states the NPCC definition of a County Line is a term used to describe gangs and organised criminal networks involved in exporting illegal drugs into one or more importing areas [within the UK], using dedicated mobile phone lines or other form of "deal line". They are likely to exploit children and vulnerable adults to move [and store] the drugs and money and they will often use coercion, intimidation, violence (including sexual violence) and weapons.

Activity 1

Can you think of an example of 'transformation through sport and activity' that you are personally aware of?

Activity 2

What 'untapped application' could sport and activity bring to your own area of work?

What other possible areas would benefit from this type of approach?
